
TO AWARD SCOUT BADGES

Nineteen Candidates Will Appear for Examination at C. of C. Tonight.

Nineteen Boy Scouts are candidates for the awarding of merit and classification badges at the meeting of the Boy Scout Court of Honor in one of the committee rooms of the Chamber of Commerce at 7:30 o'clock tonight.

Robert Pinet, if he successfully passes the examination for nine merit badges, will become an "Eagle Scout," the highest classification in scoutcraft. Other merit badge examinations are to be given to Charles Seevers, Harrison Morgan, Warren Olander, Roy Taylor and Walter Jennings.

A first class badge will be awarded on the successful passing of the examination to Raymond Coulson; second class badges to Melvin Womer, Roy Anspaugh, Wendell Garlinghouse, Howard Johnson, George Staebler and Norman Langhart; forty-hour civic service badges to William Boatright, Walter Johnson, Wayne Lewis, William Mize and Ward Martin, with a forty-hour bar to Donald Parkinson.

Judge James A. McClure, chairman of the Court of Honor, will preside at the meeting tonight.
